NATIONAL Republican Ticket.
FOR PRESIDENT,
BENJAMIN HARRISON OF INDIANA.
FOR VICE-PRESIDENT
LEVI P. MORTON,
OF NEW YORK
ANOTHER ROAD.

The Chicago and Northwestern Railroad will soon have a through line passing through Nevada. The San Francisco Chronicle says:
A New York dispatch says that J. Mervin Mahan has secured the $3,000,000 necessary to further his schemes of railway extension, and that as a consequence it will build across the State of California, through the Beckwith pass, and will connect at the State line with the Chicago and Northwestern Company's road, which is now being extended westward. This latter road is being constructed through Wyoming and into Idaho, and thence will be deflected southwestwardly through Nevada to its point of junction with the extended Donahue road.
It is not well to put too much confidence in reports of this kind, or to build railroads on paper, but it has been known for some time that the Chicago and Northwestern was ambitious to have a transcontinental line, and that it was moving westward all the time, and certainly such a connection as has been mentioned is within the bounds of possibility, if nothing more. There would be no difficulty of any moment, it is understood, in crossing California, and the Beckwith pass has long been known as available for railroad purposes.
It would be a little singular if the first competing road should come in from the north, when there has been so much talk about terminal points and water front privileges in almost every other direction; but if it should it would only go to show that railroads can keep their own counsel and that they do not deem it wise to take the public into their confidence too early.

Senator Allison spoke in the Senate Tuesday on the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill and deprecated the action of the House in cutting down the appropriations made by the Senate, especially in regard to public building appropriations. He said the House was so persistent in this reduction scheme that the Senate conferees had to agree to allow the appropriations for buildings costing $100,000 or more to be cut down one-half. Mr. Allison was indignant that $100,000 sums for buildings in Southern villages, could be railroaded through Congress and pass the scrutiny of the President, and yet a city like Sioux City, Iowa, with 30,000 people, must have no building and a veto message from the President, sneering in tone and undignified in character, should be rejected against a bill for such a purpose. He referred to items in detail that the House would not allow to remain in this bill, and said that an appropriation of $100,000 for a survey of the Mexican boundary ought to remain, as all of the boundary marks have gone, thus placing the boundary in dispute. He said that the Senate, in making any appropriation, consulted the Cabinet Ministers about that which came under their department, but the House cut down here and there and attached appropriations for unauthorized purposes, which made up for any reductions.

The most vivid picture of the tariff issue so far presented was drawn by the master hand of James G. Blaine. The alignment of the two great parties is thus illustrated in the accompanying extract from a report of Blaine's great New York speech:
We will let the Democratic party know that this is no fight for the manufacturers. They can care of themselves. [Applause.] But this is a fight for the strong arm and sturdy heart of the American laborer. [Cries of "Good!" "Good!"] If we have free trade the factories will not be closed, but, if kept open, they will be run at half the present wages. [Loud applause.] That is the issue which should be pressed home on the Democratic party. They should be arraigned as I arraign them, as conspirators against the welfare of every laboring man. [Cheers.] Let that be the issue and watchword of Republicans, and defeat is impossible.

Anxiety has been given to Mrs. Sheridan by a report that publishers at Springfield and elsewhere are preparing to issue unauthorized editions of Sheridan's life. This has caused Colonel Sheridan to announce that General Sheridan's memoirs will appear by December next, and that this is the only authentic work.

It is admitted by Democrats that the appropriations made by this Congress are $45,000,000 in excess of last year's

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Work of Nevada's Senators—The Timber Matter—James On Tariff, Etc.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 24, 1888.
EDITOR RENO JOURNAL:—No doubt ere this you begin to think that my reputation for punctuality in letter writing is all a myth; well, old fellow, business has been so great in supplying our Nevada people with campaign reading matter, that I have hardly had time to myself.

The so-called depredation of Government timbers, in and about Eureka, has stirred up some feeling here. Already letters from the Commissioner of the General Land Office have appeared in one of the most prominent papers in New York, and our Senator has not been idle in defending our people, by immediately taking the defensive and amending the Sundry Civil bill (see Congressional Record of Aug. 1st, 1888). His intention is to stop all further legal trouble between the U. S. and the citizens of Nevada, for by the construction of the law as rendered by the Commissioner of the General Land Office it will not only place the big mining companies of Eureka in litigation, but every person who ever used for any purpose any stick of the wood in controversy, can be prosecuted, notwithstanding the law of June 3d, 1878.

To your readers I would suggest, wherever they can procure a copy of the Congressional Record of August 22d, 1888, Vol. 19, No. 201, which has been liberally distributed throughout the State by Senator Stewart, and turn to page 8,517 and read on to page 8,521, will find, to use an expression credited to the lamented Horace Greeley, some "mighty good reading" in regard to the above subject.

Great activity is being displayed on the Senate side of the Capitol, and it will continue so until after the election of November. Many clerks and laborers can be seen everywhere in the corridors with their coats off and their sleeves rolled up, carrying heavy sacks chock full of documents and other printed matter for campaign purposes, to the wagon outside to be carried to the P. O. and then delivered all over the United States. The printed documents consist mostly of reprints of speeches that have already been printed in the Congressional Record. A large proportion of these documents are intended for use in the different States to enlighten the voters on the Tariff Question, and are sent out at the instance of the individual Senator; bearing the franking mark of the sender, they are distributed in whatever way the political manager finds most convenient and most effective.

By a new arrangement speeches for Presidential campaign purposes will go out from New York City, both parties having decided on that city where they can better attend to the business of the propaganda. Heretofore the same work was done in this city.
In an interview with a Washington Post reporter Senator Jones, of ours, said it would probably be two or three weeks yet before the Senate Tariff bill would be ready to be submitted to the full Committee on Finance. "But then," said the Senator, "it will be a bill as is a bill. With regard to the embryo industries of the country, our bill will be Caesarism, while the Mills bill, on the other hand, is simply an abortion."

As to the opinion expressed by some that as soon as the Senate bill got on the calendar, or shortly thereafter, the subject will be postponed till next session and Congress adjourn, Senator Jones does not believe anything of the kind will happen. He has no doubt the bill will be debated at length and pushed to a final vote. When Congress will adjourn he is unable to say. But he is of the opinion that the Republicans can conduct their campaign from Washington as well as by stumping all over the country. A large number of Republican Senators agree with this latter proposition.

The fisheries debate closed on the 22d with very little noise. The last speech was made by Senator Morgan, who, as the leading defender of the treaty in the Senate, has taken a very prominent part in the debate all along.

From first to last, when the treaty was first considered by the Senate in secret session, and afterward, when it was decided to debate it in open session, Senator Morgan must have spoken not less than fifty or sixty hours in support of the treaty. Since it came up for consideration he has probably done more talking in the Senate than ever was done in the same length of time by any other Senator. It was, therefore, quite consistent that he should have the first and the last word. The Senator varied the dull monotony of the fisheries debate by a vehement expression that made the Senators laugh. Referring to Mr. Hoar's statement that the South would sooner have free fish than war, he exclaimed: "The people of the South don't want any codfish. I could clear a ton-a-year lot full of men and women by simply placing one codfish among them." After he had spoken two hours he yielded the floor to Senator Hoar, who opposed the treaty, and was followed by Senator Evans on the same side. Then Senator Gray made a speech in favor of the treaty, and Senator Morgan closed. Yours Etc., P. V. ROUX.

SCRUBBY TIMBER.

Information Demanded by the Senators From Nevada.

WASHINGTON, August 27th.—Senator Stewart called up his resolution to-day calling on the Secretary of the Interior for information upon which Commissioner Stockslager based his letter to the Democratic members of the Committee on Appropriations and his various publications in the New York Herald, charging that Senator Stewart's amendment to the Sundry Civil bill in regard to the cutting of timber was designed to prevent the Government from receiving large sums of money from the Eureka and Richmond mining companies, of Eureka, Nev., and other corporations.

It may be remembered that Senator Stewart's amendment was a very simple affair, and that it is in the following words:

That no part of the money appropriated by this act shall be used in the investigation or prosecution of any person in the mining regions of the United States for cutting for mining or domestic purposes scrubby timber never to be sawed or hewed into lumber of commercial value.

Stockslager in his various communications declared that the amendment would prevent the prosecution of railroads and other rich corporations for clearing our public lands of timber. Senator Stewart showed that the amendment could have no such effect in preventing the prosecution of railroads and other corporations for cutting timber that could be made of commercial value by being sawed or hewed. It was confined to scrubby timber of no commercial value, and only for the purposes mentioned.

Senator Stewart denounced the Commissioner for prosecuting the people in his State for cutting timber in the mining regions for mining or domestic purposes, and charged that to do so was legal and proper under the felling law passed by Congress in 1878:

That all citizens of the United States and persons bona fide residents in the States of Colorado and Nevada and others of the Territories of New Mexico, Arizona, Dakota, Utah, Wyoming, Montana and Idaho, and other mineral districts of the United States, shall and are hereby authorized and permitted to remove for mining or domestic purposes lumber or timber trees from the public lands, such as scrubby timber of no commercial value, in any part of said States and Territories of the United States of which said citizen is a bona fide resident, subject to such rules and regulations which the Secretary has provided, etc.

Stewart charged that the proposed prosecution of the miners in his State would not be a success, and the whole scheme was for the purpose of blackmailing the Richmond and Eureka Mining Company, of Eureka, and that he did not believe any responsible citizen of Nevada had undertaken to give testimony to furnish information justifying the prosecution; that the object of his resolution is to know who are the parties investigating this blackmail.

Senator Jones warmly advocated the resolution calling for information and declared that the law above quoted was for the express purpose of permitting miners to supply themselves with fuel in mining regions, and that the wood generally cut by them would never be used by them if the mines had not been discovered; that it was essential to mining and the proposed prosecution was an outrage that ought to be stopped at once. The resolution was adopted.

A SUBMARINE WONDER.

Julius Verne's Conception of the Nautilus Being Realized.

PARIS, Aug. 29.—A vessel has been invented that promises to revolutionize naval warfare. The vessel is designed by M. Ramagote, a Government engineer, and is so constructed as to be able to dive with comparative ease and safety beneath the keel of the largest ironclad, and by means of a special apparatus to fasten explosive cartridges to the sides of the enemy's vessel. The cartridges are to be exploded by electricity. The vessel is seventeen meters long and will be capable of sinking under water to any given depth and then to again rise to the surface. Her steering is effected by an ordinary rudder working on a double hinge. A little cupola is built on her bow. The cupola is provided with glass windows, from which the officer in command will direct the vessel. The entire crew is to consist of one officer, two engineers and a sailor. The motive-power consists of Kreh's electric machine of 50-horsepower. Preparations are already being made for launching this formidable little vessel, and the railway is now being laid to convey her from the arsenal to the sea.

The JOURNAL sorrowfully republishes this from the Elko Independent:

President Cleveland is "scared to death," and thinks seriously of "throwing up the sponge" since reading a copy of the Reno JOURNAL containing a whole column of the names of "Moss-Backed Bourbonns seeking a Better Resting-Place."

Mrs. Mark Hopkins has bought the Lick House, San Francisco, for $1,000,000.

THE FISHERIES.

Blaine Does Not Believe Congress Will Gratify the President.

WATERVILLE, Me., August 27. Three thousand persons this afternoon listened to Blaine's tariff speech. He said the question of a protective tariff came to every wage-worker's door. That idea, with the apprehension it creates, has finally got into the heads of the Democratic leaders. The President and his political advisers, who are now trying to stifle the furor about free trade and get them talking about something else beside protection, believe their forlorn hope was to get up a great scrimmage with Canada over the fisheries question.

Blaine said the President could not settle the fishery question in an easy, rational way when we were suffering outrages, but now, at the close of the season, he says: "I want you to pass a law that will allow me to stop all transit trade with Canada." In effect the President declares he does not want to settle the question right down at Portland or at Halifax, but wants to settle it out in Manitoba, and wants to have a disturbance all along the line. The President wants to put courage into his Administration and the protective tariff out of the minds of the people, but I do not believe Congress will gratify the President, now that the fishing season is over, and no outrages have been committed. The American people will direct that the whole question go over to the next year. By that time there will be a Republican President in the White House and a Republican Congress in the Capitol, and then we will settle the question as it ought to be settled; settled as the Republican party has always dealt with Great Britain in holding high the dignity of the United States, and informing Great Britain, as General Grant did once in the case of the Alabama claims, that the fishery dispute must be settled on terms of full equity and justice to American fishermen and in accordance with honor to both nations. Ah, my friends, the President's machine is contrived to run about seventy days, but it will surely run without harm to the men who are in front of it, and, may I not add, it is admirably arranged to kick and kill the man who is behind it.

Blaine was frequently interrupted by laughter and applause.

Blaine's next speech will be made in Calais. Blaine will leave Augusta Tuesday afternoon, sleeping at Bangor on Tuesday night and next day proceeding in season for the afternoon meeting. His speech will treat chiefly of the fishery difficulty. Blaine is in the best of health.

CHARLES CROCKER'S WILL.

The Estate Estimated at Twenty-five and a Quarter Millions.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 29th.—The will of the late Charles Crocker was filed in the Probate Court this afternoon. It was executed May 2, 1887.

Mrs. Mary A. Crocker, widow of deceased, is appointed executrix. The petition for probate states that the estate is worth something over $25,250,000, divided as follows: Real estate, $2,800,000; stocks and bonds, $12,000,000; accounts, $1,500,000; promissory notes, $8,500,000; cash, $500,000. Testator declares that the entire estate is community property and his wife is entitled to one-half. In addition she is bequeathed their two residences, with all the furniture, etc.—one in this city and the other in Sacramento. A number of relatives are left sums ranging from $10,000 to $30,000. Provision is also made for the family servants. Testator also mentions the names of a number of relatives to whom he leaves nothing, as he had advanced during his lifetime all he intended to bequeath them. To his son, George Crocker, he leaves all he had advanced to him for his business. One-quarter of his residue is left to his two sons, Charles F. and William P. Crocker, and the remainder is to be invested for deceased's daughter, Mrs. H. V. Alexander, of New York.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

BREVITIES

Reno has seven barber shops.
Slight shower in Reno yesterday.
S. Peyser, of Susanville, was in town yesterday.

Governor Davis came down from Carson last night.
A crowd of scholars for the School for Girls arrived last night.

Chicago knows now how it feels to be discriminated against by railroads.

C. H. Stoddard, the War Claim agent, leaves for Washington on this morning's train.

Young Logan failed to pass at West Point on account of a defect in one of his eyes.

No good houses to rent. What will the matter be next Winter, when the demand is always great.

The Boston Dramatic Club want the McKissick Opera House for the week commencing October 15th.

The Electric Light Co. turned on the electric light last night, and the town once again resumed its wonted brilliancy.

John W. Mackay intends to leave for the East in a few days, but it is understood he will first pay a visit to the Comstock.

Having put Sanderland's annex in readiness for the carpenters, the Burke Bros. are now at work on the brick addition to Judge King's building.

Sam Davis, of the Carson Appeal, was in town yesterday, and visited the new Fair Grounds, with which he was highly pleased. His herd of Holsteins will be at the Fair.

The second trial of the Black murder case has ended in no verdict, seven being for manslaughter and five for acquittal. The case has been again set for trial Oct. 5th.

Hon. R. M. Daggett came up from the Bay yesterday morning and remained in Reno until the afternoon V. & T. local departed for Virginia. He says he has come back to stay.

The First National Bank has just received some handsome photographs of the view of the interior of the establishment taken by the Southern Pacific artists who were here three months ago.

The new time-card will go into effect next Wednesday. No. 1 will arrive at 7:05 A. M. and leave at 7:35. No. 2 will leave at 9:45 P. M. No. 3 will arrive at 8:45 P. M. No. 4 will leave at 6:45 A. M.

Seats are being rapidly taken for the entertainment to be given by the Lew Morrison Company Saturday night. "Faust" is sure to draw a crowded house. The scenic effects are the principal attractions of the play. Its merits are almost wholly spectacular.

The new time card is said to have been agreed upon by the Union Pacific and Central Pacific, and under it the west-bound train will arrive at Reno about 9 o'clock at night. There will be but one overland train, but there will be the two trains between Reno and San Francisco.

President Edgerton, of the Civil Service Reform Commission, has called at the Democratic headquarters with a small cash contribution. It would take a Bunoby to do justice to this, but everybody can do justice to the splendid meals furnished at the Palace restaurant by Lemery & Howard.

A passenger on the V. & T. recently asked Joe McCormick, the conductor: "Do we stop long enough at Reno to eat a sandwich?" "No Sir," replied Joe, "we only stop twenty minutes." Joe was thinking of the sandwiches he tackled. The usual size upon which he breakfasts is 4x6, but at night he chatters the brewery and orders a 12x16.

C. W. Booton, of the Opera House dry goods store, has on hand a fine stock of blankets from $1.25 to $12 per pair. He will guarantee to save you 25 per cent, on all goods such as blankets, bed spreads, comforters, ladies' and children's underwear, men's and boys' shirts. Call at the cash store if you wish bargains in anything in the dry goods line.

Sam Longabaugh returned to Empire yesterday. He will be here again next week to bring his daughter to school, as he remarked "Reno has the best schools in the State, and a man can take his choice." Mr. Longabaugh intends to make Reno his future home, preferring the climate to any yet found in California. It is such men as Mr. Longabaugh that Reno is glad to welcome.

Drying up.—H. H. McColey, of Willow Creek, Humboldt county, says the springs and streams are drying up in that section. Wells, which have never failed heretofore, have to be sunk deeper to furnish water for domestic purposes.

A PARADISE EQUESTRIENNE.

Miss J. Kemler Helps Drive a Band of Horses to California.

The Kemler sisters, of Paradise Valley, have acquired a national reputation as equestriennes. They have been awarded the first premiums at the California and Nevada State Fairs for graceful and daring horsemanship. They can go into the kitchen and cook like a French chef, or into the parlor and play the Arkansaw Traveler or the latest operatic air on the piano. One of them, Miss Johanna, desiring exercise and recreation, started with her father to drive a band of 50 horses from Winnemucca to Sacramento. She now writes the Silver State that they arrived at Sacramento last week. She made the trip on horseback, while her father rode in a buggy. The horses went through nicely, and though they crossed three deserts of 32, 35 and 50 miles, respectively, without water, but with plenty of dust, they experienced no great inconvenience. They drove on the shores of Lake Tahoe for 15 miles, and were delighted with the grand scenery there and elsewhere along the road through the Sierra Nevada. The young lady says she enjoyed the trip very much, thinks it is preferable, so far as health is concerned, to the fashionable watering place, and arrived at Sacramento with a good appetite, and not much fatigued by the journey.

Time Card Reno to Ligan.

The Nevada and California railroad will commence running regular trains between Reno and Ligan on the 10th of September. The distance is 70 miles. The train will leave Reno at 7 A. M. arriving at Ligan at 12:40 A. M. Returning will leave Ligan at 5:50 P. M., arriving at Reno at 12:50 A. M.

A GREAT CRIME THAT CALLS FOR SEVERE PUNISHMENT.—The White Pine News says:

We learn that there is considerable dissatisfaction among the Indians at Ely, going to the extent of threatening open revolt against the whites. Their alleged grievance is that the whites get their squaws drunk and use them for base purposes. This trouble should be nipped in the bud by the officers of the law, of which there is a full quota now in Ely. And the first step that should be taken is to arrest and hold for trial all parties found giving or selling liquor to Indians. The law is on the Statute books. Enforce it, officers of the peace; and don't let this trouble assume such shape that we may any day be called to chronicle the massacre of innocent men—perhaps, women and children. This daily-dallying with men who violate the laws made for the public good, because it is thought too expensive to enforce them, is not the right thing. It is to protect the lives and property of the people that good citizens pay burdensome taxes without a murmur to support officers whose duty it is to execute the laws. Why don't they do it?

ANOTHER LEDGE.—According to a survey of the Winnemucca mine made by General Irish and Perry Powers, the 640-foot lead in the tunnel is at least forty feet from the ledge in the old water winze. This indicates, says the Silver State, that there are three well defined gold and silver bearing veins running nearly parallel on the company's claim. The lead in the water winze carries sulphuret ore and the others, so far, do not.

THE CHILDREN OF J. C. HAMPTON.—The San Francisco Bulletin, of Wednesday, says:

Yesterday Judge Coffey granted W. S. Gage, Jr., letters of guardianship over John C. Hampton, aged eighteen. J. C. Hampton, the father of the minor, with his wife, was drowned in the late collision between the Oceanic and City of Chester. The minor is the eldest of three children, and the value of their estate is about $200,000, consisting of personal property only. The deceased was in business at Virginia City.

FINLEN'S TRIAL POSTPONED.—The second trial of Miles Finlen, indicted for the murder of David Pyne, set for September 3, is continued until the first Monday in October, on application of defendant's counsel, on the ground that O. E. Mack, one of the attorneys for Finlen, is unwell, and also because Jas. A. Stephens, assistant counsel for the prosecution, cannot be here on the first date set on account of the illness of his wife in San Francisco.

A WASHON MOSES.—Day before yesterday workmen engaged on a tunnel for the purpose of getting water for the V. & T. R. R., near Franktown, struck a stream of water in the solid granite that drove the workmen out and filled a ten-inch flume. The ranchers in the vicinity are delighted and astonished.

TAKING CATTLE EAST.—Beef cattle from the Owyhee country, in Idaho, are being sold for shipment to Chicago. J. W. Sharp, of Jordan Valley, informs the Silver City Avalanche that a good many stock cattle are being sold to Nebraska men at $12.50 per head.

The Only Perfect Remedy
For habitual constipation, dyspepsia and kindred ills is the famous California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs. It is easily taken, and perfectly harmless. Sold by Wm. Pinniger, Reno.

Chairman Tracy, of the New York Republican State Convention, struck the keynote of the campaign in a brief speech. He said that the Free-trade message of Cleveland and the Mills bill make up an issue of greater importance than any since the Democratic National Convention in 1864, which declared the war a failure. The issue of 1864 involved the very existence of the Nation; the issue of 1893 involves the continued existence of our manufacturing industries and commercial prosperity.

Those Democrats who do not believe the tendency of the leaders of their party is to free trade should read the following New York dispatch of August 27th:

Henry George had his first Cleveland and Thurman ratification meeting to-night, and besides himself William Lloyd Garrison was the speaker. Mr. Garrison said the Republican party was content to dwell on the issues of the past. He added: "We have no desire to conceal that our attitude is one of absolute free trade."

Henry George said: "I stand here to ratify the nomination of Cleveland and Thurman. Grover Cleveland is the true labor candidate of to-day. I am a free-trader, and a man who is afraid to be branded as a free trader does not know the power in the world free. The protectionists have had their way for years, and it is about time that we tried freedom."

Reports received at the Indianapolis headquarters of the Lincoln League are encouraging. One club from the lower part of the State reports 102 members, thirteen of whom were formerly Democrats. This is no uncommon thing. In all the rosters that have been sent in the significant note "formerly a Democrat" is found, and in many of the clubs it appears with a frequency that shows considerable of a change in the political complexion of the State. One of the significant features of the campaign is that a large number of greenbackers, formerly Republicans, but who have been out of harmony with the party for some time, are renewing their allegiance to the banner of their first adoption. The gain from the Prohibitionists is another significant feature. Reports show that many men who have formerly been identified with that party are severing their connection with it and propose to act with the Republicans this year.

An Explanation.

What is this "nervous trouble" with which so many seem now to be afflicted? If you will remember a few years ago the word malaria was comparatively unknown,—to-day it is as common as any word in the English language, yet this word covers only the meaning of another word used by our forefathers in distant past. So it is with nervous diseases, as they and malaria are intended to cover what our grandfathers called biliousness, and all are caused by troubles that arise from a diseased condition of the liver which, in performing its functions, finding it cannot dispose of the bile through the ordinary channel is compelled to pass it off through the system, causing nervous troubles, Malaria, Bilious Fever, etc. You who are suffering can well appreciate a cure. We recommend Green's August Flower. Its cures are marvelous.

NEW ORLEANS, La.

I suffered with catarrh for many years and got so deaf that I went about my Museums, Circus and Theatre giving directions and doing business with a big ear-trumpet at the side of my head. It was very annoying to me and amusing to those who saw me. By the advice of physicians I sought the climate of the Sunny South. In six months I could see no change and was discouraged. At this time I began using Chalmers' English Catarrh Cure. In three months I felt a new man, in six months my hearing returned. I refused to give a testimonial at once for the English Catarrh Cure, as I feared it was not permanent. But a year and more has now passed, and I can now heartily endorse Chalmers' English Catarrh Cure for the cure of catarrh and deafness.

250 Beautiful Lots For Sale! A RARE CHANCE FOR INVESTMENT AND A HOME THE MOST LOVELY PORTION OF RENO.

Facing the Truckee—The Aristocratic Riverside Avenue Driveway—Splendid Sewerage—Healthy Location and Safe From Fire.

The proprietor is now ready to receive proposals for lots in Powning's Addition. The map gives a good idea of the Tract, which is situated between the Central Pacific Railroad and the Truckee River, and commences on the west at a point three blocks distant from Virginia Street, making it the most central and convenient of any portion of the rapidly growing town of Reno. Unlike any other part of the town this Addition faces the beautiful Truckee River and Riverside Avenue is certain to become the fashionable driveway of the country. The streets are 80 feet wide, while Riverside and Keystone Avenues are intended to be 100 feet in width. All alleys are 20 feet wide. The soil is a rich gravelly loam, and susceptible of the highest state of cultivation. Being situated as it is it is more safe from fire than any other section. The regular lots are 50x140 feet. The sewerage is perfect.

Before Buying Elsewhere Parties will do Well to Look at These Lots.
